Oh, Alma Mater, Alma Mater
We humbly bow to thee!

A spectacular viewing of the solar eclipse happened at JSU this year. The students and community all gathered together in front of the Theron Montgomery Building to watch. It was a day filled with fun and learning.

U.N. DAY TEA

JSU celebrates the annual United Nations Day Tea, where the International House residents are introduced to area residents and faculty. Colorful national clothing, songs, and dances are presented by many of the students.

Nearly 50 percent of American college students don't always know where their next meal is coming from, including in Alabama - the nation's sixth poorest state. In Fall 2017, JSU joined more than 200 of its peers across the US in opening a Food Pantry to ensure no student goes hungry.

Run entirely on donations and led by the Division of Student Affairs, the JSU Food Pantry provides free non-perishable food items and hygiene products to students in need. It is located in the basement of Sparkman Hall, where doors are open on the back entrance to the building on the ground floor (to allow students to seek assistance without embarrassment).

President John and Dr. Pamela Beehler were so moved by the needs of students, they led a donation drive for the pantry and spearheaded an initiative to establish Donate a Meal Day. The university's first Donate a Meal Day was a huge success in February, with JSU students and employees - including President and First Lady Beehler - donating 754 meals from their dining plans to be used by students in need.

JSU sophomore Camden Swatts finished in the Top 5 in the Miss Alabama Pageant in June 2018. The 2017 Miss JSU participated in the pageant as Miss Auburn-Opelika.

After making it to the Top 12 during her first Miss Alabama appearance in 2017, Swatts came in as fourth runner-up in 2018. The Beauregard, Ala., native and dietetics major aspires to help others lead healthy lives by becoming a registered dietitian. It should come as no surprise, then, that she aced the preliminary swimsuit competition at Miss Alabama this year.

During the talent portion of the competition Swatts danced to Andre Day's "Rise Up". Her platform was Fibromyalgia Awareness.

Camden Swatts won a $2,000 Miss Alabama Board of Directors Fourth Runner-Up Award, $1,000 In Honor of Heather Whitestone, Miss America 1995, and a $300 Preliminary Swimsuit Winner Award

Lauren Reaves, our Miss, JSU 2018 won a $1,000 Scholarship from the Miss Alabama Organization and a $1,000 Scholarship on Behalf of the Alabama Theatre Association.

Sisters First: Camden Swatts got a big hug from Lauren Reaves, fellow Gamecock and Alpha Omicron Pi sister, after winning Best Swimsuit in the prelim round of the Miss Alabama pageant.

GREEK LIFE

ALPHA OMICRON PI

The values on which AOII was founded help lead us in the decisions we make and the behaviors we exhibit in our daily lives. We are inspired to promote the values of simplicity, integrity, circumspection, tolerance, generosity, personal dignity, and love. Our lives are to be living symbols of these values that we hold in common. They enable us to go with character and confidence into the world around us, confidently knowing AOII is ours, offering friendships and opportunities throughout our lifetime.

The object of the Fraternity shall be to encourage a spirit of fraternity and love among its members; to stand at all times for character, dignity, scholarship, and college loyalty; to strive for and support the best interests of the colleges and universities in which chapters are installed, and in no way to disregard, injure, or sacrifice those interests for the sake of prestige or advancement of the fraternity or any of its chapters.

Mission Statement: "Women Enriched Through Lifelong Friendship."

ALPHA XI DELTA

Founded in 1893 at Lombard College in Galesburg, Illinois, Alpha Xi Delta is one of the oldest women's fraternal organizations in the United States. With more than 150,000 initiated members, Alpha Xi Delta is a progressive organization dedicated to the personal growth of women. Throughout Alpha Xi Delta's long and proud history, it continues to enrich the lives of women throughout the world by emphasizing the ideals our founders instilled in our fraternity: sisterhood, leadership, knowledge, and service to our communities. Through their membership in Alpha Xi Delta, our bold and talented sisters are inspired to realize their potential. These women are genuine, lifelong friends who are involved on their campuses and in their communities, and are dedicated to inspiring the lives of others. Alpha Xi Delta provides opportunities for fun, friendship and leadership during a member's college years and beyond.

Alpha Xi Delta's founders taught us the value of education because it frees us to achieve our goals and gives us the power to be whatever we choose. They taught us to support one another through shared experiences and understanding, and to serve others to better the lives of those less fortunate. Because of them, Alpha Xi Delta continues to inspire countless bold and talented women to realize their potential.

DELTA ZETA

When six young women came together in 1902 to form a social sorority, they had a vision of lifetime sisterhood fostered by ideals that they cherished.

The six friends bonded quickly as they faced the challenge of starting a sorority on a male-dominated campus, as women had just been given full status as students at Miami University. Alfa Lloyd, Mary Collins, Anna Keen, Julia Bishop, Mabelle Minton and Anne Simmons met with Dr. Guy Potter Benton, the president of the university, to make their idea a reality.

Delta Zeta Sorority was founded at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, in 1902. It was the first sorority to be founded at the university.

The founders then went on to lay the foundation for the sorority which would have a national reach. Today, Delta Zeta has enriched the lives of over 260,000 alumnae and collegiate members in the United States and Canada.

PHI MU

Founded in 1852, Phi Mu is a women's organization which provides personal and academic development, service to others, commitment to excellence and lifelong friendship through a shared tradition. Phi Mu promotes vibrant living, encouraging members to achieve their personal best.

Phi Mu's Creed was submitted by sisters of the Mu Chapter and was adopted at the 1916 National Convention. The Creed is credited to Grace Lumpkin, Mu National President Beth Monnin, officially named 2016 "The Year of the Creed" in honor of the Creed's 100th anniversary.

Phi Mu was founded by Mary Elizabeth Myrick (Daniel), Mary Ann DuPont (Lines) and Martha Bibb Hardaway (Redding). Phi Mu was founded in 1852 at Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga. and is the second oldest sorority in the nation. We have provided social opportunities, a support network, and personal enrichment resources to members for over 160 years. In that time over 175,000 Phi Mu women have been vibrant members of college campuses and we have chartered over 242 chapters.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The Creed of Zeta Tau Alpha:

To realize that within our grasp, in Zeta Tau Alpha, lies the opportunity to learn those things which will ever enrich and ennoble our lives; to be true to ourselves, and to those within and without our circle; to think in terms of all mankind and our service in the world; to be steadfast, strong, and clean of heart and mind, remembering that since the thought is rather to the deed, only that which we would have manifested in our experience should be entertained in thought; to find satisfaction in being, rather than seeming, thus strengthening in us the higher qualities of the spirit; to prepare for service and learn the nobility of serving, thereby earning the right to be served; to seek understanding that we might gain true wisdom; to look for the good in everyone; to see beauty, with its enriching influence; to be humble in success, and without bitterness in defeat; to have the welfare and harmony of the fraternity at heart, striving ever to make our lives a symphony of high ideals, devotion to the Right, the Good, and the True, without a discordant note; remembering always that the foundation precept of Zeta Tau Alpha was Love, "the greatest of all things."

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated (AKA) was founded on a mission comprised of five basic tenets that have remained unchanged since the sorority's inception more than a century ago. Alpha Kappa Alpha's mission is to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women, to study and help alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature, to maintain a progressive interest in college life, and to be of "Service to All Mankind."

The small group of women who founded Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority at the turn of the last century were conscious of their privileged position as college-trained women of color just one generation removed from slavery. But at the same time, they were sensitive to the needs and struggles of the less fortunate in underserved communities in their hometowns and in other environs beyond their travels who were in need of goods, services and opportunities beyond their reach. The young collegians' commitment to scholarship, leadership, civic engagement and public service, woven together by the bonds of lifelong sisterhood, formed the bedrock of the rich legacy of servant-leadership that epitomizes the sorority to this day. And the global reach of its programs, laser-focused on the health, wealth, family, education, human rights and parity issues that concern its constituents, ensures the relevance of the organization into perpetuity.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Mission Statement: Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is an organization of college educated women committed to constructive development of its members and to public service with a primary focus on the Black Community.

Statement of Purpose: Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is a private, not-for-profit organization whose purpose is to provide assistance and support through established programs in local communities throughout the world. Since its founding more than 200,000 women have joined the organization. The organization is a sisterhood of predominately black, college educated women. The Sorority currently has 1,000 collegiate and alumnae chapters located in the United States, England, Japan, Germany, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, the Bahamas, Jamaica and the Republic of Korea.

The major programs of the sorority are based upon the organization's Five Point Programmatic Thrust. More than 10,000 members typically attend Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated's biennial national conventions, and each of the seven regional conferences (held during years when there is no national convention). At its recent 51st National Convention held in the District of Columbia, more than 38,000 members registered and attended.

TAU DELTA PHI

Established in 1910 as a high school fraternity, Tau Delta Phi was founded as a fraternity at City College of New York, The New York College of Dentistry, and New York University simultaneously in 1914. Incorporated in the State of New York, our current national office is located in New York City, N.Y. Tau Delta Phi Fraternity works daily to realize its vision “to develop brotherhood of exemplary leaders whose character and reputation earn respect and uncommon admiration.”

We live to uphold our public motto: “He Shall Not Want, As Long As I Breathe, For He is My Brother.”

We are proud of the philanthropy work of our chapters, who work in partnership with Active Minds, Inc. to address college student mental health needs on our host campuses. We are equally proud of the service we provide to our host campuses and our local communities.

KAPPA SIGMA

Kappa Sigma provides opportunities for fellowship, fun, and personal growth that you simply can't get elsewhere. Over 280,000 men have joined and enjoyed the unmatched experiences, involvement, and lifelong brotherhood that Kappa Sigma offers. There is no secret... our goal is to build better men.

Helping others is part of being a Kappa Sigma. Brothers spend thousands of hours working in their communities and raise thousands of dollars for worthy causes each year. From organizing park clean-ups to serving as Big Brothers to hosting charity rock concerts, Kappa Sigmas work hard for their causes. College is fun, but only service gives you the great feeling of knowing you've helped someone and made a difference.

SIGMA NU

Sigma Nu's vision is to excel with honor. The mission of the organization is to develop ethical leaders inspired by the principles of Love, Honor, and Truth; to foster the personal growth of each man's mind, heart and character; to perpetuate lifelong friendships and commitment to the fraternity.

Leadership in Action: Sigma Nu transforms society through the commitment of its members to the fraternity's founding principles, leadership, and ethical living.

Excellence: Sigma Nu's organizational structures and internal operations provide for the effective deployment of resources to deliver an unmatched level of service to its constituents.

Growth: Sigma Nu is continually increasing its membership and capabilities as it creates and capitalizes on new markets and opportunities that support the fraternity's mission.

Membership Value: Sigma Nu enhances the experience of its members and builds a sense of community in a way that generates a desire to invest time, talent and treasure in the development of both the organization and its future members which, is recognized by all as a contribution to the greater good.

DELTA CHI

"We, the members of The Delta Chi Fraternity, believing that great advantages are to be derived from a brotherhood of college and university men, appreciating that close association may promote friendship, develop character, advance justice, and assist in the acquisition of a sound education, do ordain and establish this Constitution."

Certainly the most public and perhaps the best-known description of the purposes of Delta Chi, the Preamble's principle ideals, offer profound potential as a guide to daily life as a brother.

It has been pointed out that the four most important words in the Preamble are not what most members assume: "Friendship," "Character," "Justice," and "Education." Instead, it is suggested that the four most important words are "Promote," "Develop," "Advance," and "Assist". The point is that "Fraternity," and in particular, "Delta Chi," is not just about what "is" but what we, as members, should actually be doing. It is our actions that make Delta Chi, which is why the key words are the verbs instead of the nouns.

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

Reverence: Our founders sought to emulate the ideal Christian gentleman and in so doing recognized the importance of having a deep reverence for God. Our motto, “Dieu et Les Dames” means “God and the ladies” and reflects our commitment to the ideals of modern chivalry as a contemporary order of knights.

Gentility: The men of Kappa Alpha Order are known as the gentlemen of the fraternity world. An AKA, through his gentility, should always be distinguished by his modern chivalric characteristics.

Service: At the heart of the code of chivalry and the fabric of KA is service to those in need. Through community service, volunteerism and commitment to philanthropy, KAs aim to serve those around them as students and citizens.

Leadership: We teach our members to be leaders among men, on campus, in their communities, and throughout life. Through bravery and self-reliance, KAs strive to lead their lives with honor, and when given the opportunity, to lead others with humility, integrity, and justice.

Knowledge: The philosophy of our order is that the acquisition of knowledge and the development of character are the great goals of life. Our focus on the cultivation of knowledge manifests itself through academic achievement on campus, growth and success in our careers, and the positive impact we have in the communities where we reside.

Perseverance: “Onward” is ever our stance despite the danger and difficulty that life often brings. KAs understand that anything in life worth attaining will take hard work, dedication, and determination, whether in the classroom, the community, or throughout the endeavors of life.

Excellence: Excellence is our aim and “Upward” is the direction that we continually strive. No matter the situation or circumstance, KAs work to attain excellence and to overcome the temptation to settle for mediocrity. We exemplify this commitment through leadership and service to others, with a vision to make the world a brighter place in which to work and live.

PI KAPPA PHI

Pi Kappa Phi was founded on the premise of creating leadership opportunities for our members. Our founders exemplified leadership in the classroom, on the athletic field, in campus politics and within the community. Leadership is the very root of our organization, and it is the concept of leadership that shall guide us to our future.

Our Mission: To create an uncommon and lifelong brotherhood that develops leaders and encourages service to others for the betterment of our communities.

Our Vision: A future where every Pi Kappa Phi embraces his role as a leader, puts service before self and improves the world around him.

Student Creed Values: Common Loyalty, Personal Responsibility, Achievement, Accountability, Campus Involvement, Responsible Citizenship, and Lifelong Commitment.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon strives to give young men the leadership, scholarship, service and social experiences they need to excel in the walls outside their campus and once they graduate. We firmly believe membership is for life. In addition, we strive to mold our members into gentlemen so they can set an example in today's society.

Our Mission: The Fraternity's mission is advancing the highest standards of friendship, scholarship, leadership and service for our members throughout life.

Our Vision: The Fraternity's vision is True Gentlemen making our global community better.

Our Creed: "THE TRUE GENTLEMAN"

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

- John Walter Wayland

Fraternity and Sorority Life at JSU offers students a unique opportunity to develop lifelong friendships, engage in community service, excel in academics, and develop their leadership potential.

The background of the cover is a dark, atmospheric scene. On the left, a bright blue, ethereal smoke or mist rises from the ground. In the bottom left corner, the lower leg and a black athletic shoe of a person are visible, standing on what appears to be a dirt field. The rest of the background is a solid, deep black.

JSU FINE ARTS

STUDENT EXHIBIT

JSU DRAMA

When the curtain raised on the 2017-2018 JSU Drama season, guests were delighted to discover a new and improved theatre experience. Over the previous summer, the Stone Center theatre was renovated and updated to include a new lobby with beautiful stone work, a flat screen television and expanded restroom facilities. A new state-of-the-art theatrical lighting system was also installed on the main stage. First in the lineup of outstanding productions presented this year was Arthur Miller's powerful adaptation of Henrik Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People." Next was the annual Student Showcase with two evenings of one-act plays directed by students, as well as displays of student design work. The classic musical "Guys and Dolls" lit up the stage next, with audiences singing along to Broadway hits "A Bushel and A Peck," and "Luck Be a Lady."

Despite the disruptive Spring Break tornado, JSU Drama reopened the theatre in late spring. Students and faculty presented a workshop production of the winner of the annual Southern Playwrights Competition, "Lillian Paula Carson," by John Barrow. They also produced Lois Lowry's Newberry Award winning young adult novel "The Giver," in an adaptation by Eric Coble. Finally, drawing the season to a close, was an original production written and directed by JSU Drama Professor Michael Boynton: "Country Co-Ed," which was later performed at the Cap Fringe Festival in Washington DC in July. After a season like this, it's no wonder JSU Drama has audiences shouting "Encore!"

ARBOR DAY

JSU's distinction comes as the Arbor Day Foundation celebrates its 10th anniversary of the Tree Campus USA program, which recognizes colleges and universities for effective campus forest management and for engaging staff and students in conservation goals. One of 344 campuses in the nation to hold this title to date, JSU received the honor by meeting Tree Campus USA's five standards: maintaining a tree advisory committee, maintaining a campus tree-care plan, dedicating annual expenditures for its campus tree program, and holding an Arbor Day observance and student service-learning project.

FOUNDERS DAY

VETERANS DAY

At JSU, one day isn't enough to celebrate and show our appreciation for our veterans. The Center of Excellence for Veteran Student Support presented an entire week of activities to recognize those who have served or are now serving in our nation's military on Nov. 13-17. They contributed a Sign the Salute to Service Flag, stories were shared by veterans, Veterans Day was held, and the 3rd annual ceremony was held, featuring Col. Joel Warhurst, commander of the Anniston Army Depot., as a keynote speaker.

Women in Philanthropy

American icon Lilly Ledbetter was honored at a Women in Philanthropy Brunch on April 25 at The Club in Birmingham. She was presented an Excellence Award from JSU.

WHERE YOU'RE GOING.
JSU STRONG

HOME

JSU and the surrounding community was hit by an EF-3 tornado on March 19, 2018, severely damaging 23 buildings and impacting more than 50 on campus. Thankfully, the spring break tornado did not result in any loss of life. University faculty, staff, students, alumni, friends and neighbors united during this difficult time and pledged to rebuild our beautiful campus and local community and rise from the rubble even stronger than before. This was a hard struggle for Jacksonville. Everyone did so much to bring it back to where it is now and everyone, students and faculty, are ready to show how strong JSU truly is. We are Gamecock Strong and Jacksonville Strong! This spring semester was a tough one but everyone pulled out of it stronger than ever.

A tall, multi-story building with a distinctive tiered design, featuring red brick walls and white horizontal bands. The building has a flat roof with a decorative parapet. In the foreground, a group of students in light blue shirts are standing and talking. A tall lamppost is on the left, and trees are visible in the background.

WE ARE JSU STRONG

"Mimosa" is advised by the Jacksonville State University Department of Marketing and Communications and created by a student editor. The origins of the JSU yearbook can be traced back to 1926, under the name "Teacola" (sometimes spelled "Teacoala"). In 1933, the title was changed to "Mimosa." Digital archives are available online at <http://www.jsu.edu/library/collections>.
